

Hello Rowan-Cabarrus Student,

The U.S. Department of Education recently announced the Coronavirus Aid Relief and Economic Security (CARES) Act. The intent of this funding is to be used to assist college students whose lives have been disrupted, many of whom are facing financial challenges and struggling to make ends meet. This is grant money, which means it does not have to be repaid. It should be used to assist with your cost of attendance, which includes things such as food, housing, course materials, technology, health care, and childcare.

Based on the number of credit hours moved from face-to-face to online, you may be eligible to receive: $500.00.

Why are you potentially eligible?

Due to COVID-19, Rowan-Cabarrus Community College moved to remote teaching, and you were affected by this since you originally selected one or more of your courses as a face-to-face class. You will need to complete the CARES Act Attestation form below, which will confirm your CARES Act eligibility. We hope this emergency award will relieve some of your financial burdens and allow you to continue to succeed in your courses.

What do you need to do to confirm your eligibility and receive the money?

1. Complete the Rowan-Cabarrus CARES Act Attestation Form to verify your Title IV Eligibility.
2. Select the way you want to receive your funds through the BankMobile site. Rowan-Cabarrus partners with BankMobile to securely deliver your refunds. The easiest way to do that is by going to refundselection.com and entering your personal code. If you can't find your code, click on Need A Code? or just click this link.

These are unprecedented and challenging times for all of us. We know you find yourselves with obstacles you never imagined having to overcome, and we want you to know we are here to help! We want you to continue your education, reach your goals, and fulfill your dreams of a better tomorrow.

If you have further concerns that we can help with, please let us know by completing the Student Assistance Form or by emailing fin.aid@rccc.edu.

Sincerely,

Allison Scott
